

Active and Passive Voice

Name: _____

Date: _____

Remember: In active voice, the subject does the action (e.g., "The cat chased the mouse"). In passive voice, the subject receives the action (e.g., "The mouse was chased by the cat").

Part A: Identify the Voice

Write A for active voice or P for passive voice in the box.

- 1. The students performed a fantastic play for their parents.
- 2. The winning goal was scored by Jessica in the final minute.
- 3. The ancient ruins were discovered by archaeologists last year.
- 4. My brother baked a delicious chocolate cake for my birthday.
- 5. The valuable painting has been stolen from the gallery.
- 6. The teacher explained the maths problem clearly to the class.

Part B: Rewrite in Passive Voice

Change these active voice sentences to passive voice.

- 1. The chef prepared a magnificent feast.

- 2. The fierce storm damaged many houses.

- 3. Scientists will launch the new satellite next month.

Part C: Rewrite in Active Voice

Change these passive voice sentences to active voice.

- 1. The letter was delivered by the postman this morning.

- 2. The winning entry was chosen by the judges yesterday.

- 3. The national anthem is sung by the crowd before every match.
