A Day at the Beach

On Saturday morning, Emma and her brother Jack went to the beach with their mum and dad. The sun was shining brightly in the clear blue sky. Emma wore her favourite red swimming togs and brought a yellow bucket and spade.

First, they built a huge sandcastle near the water. Jack found some shells to decorate it. Then, Emma and Jack ran into the cool water to swim. The waves were gentle and fun to jump over.

After swimming, they ate lunch on their picnic blanket. Mum had packed sandwiches, apples, and some biscuits. Emma's favourite part of the day was collecting colourful shells along the shore. By the end of the day, everyone was tired but very happy.
